ZOTEK® N

Shrugging off the toughest knocks

ZOTEK® N takes the traditional properties of nylon and transforms them into one of the most exciting new impact protection materials.

The lightness of a foam combined with nylon's customary characteristics delivers a surprisingly advanced and versatile material.

This revolutionary material offers a unique combination of wearability and durability plus outstanding impact performance.

ZOTEK® N is used by major brands to enhance their high-tech impact protective clothing.
